Cabbies' pasts don't fare well with the law

EXCLUSIVE

BY LUI STRACCIA

lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

A CABBIE is legally driving passengers around despite having 21 previous convictions including possession of cannabis, theft, six counts of shoplifting and breaching a probation order.

In all, 44 taxi/private hire/Hackney Carriage drivers in Luton hold licences despite having committed a staggering 151 crimes between them such as possession of an offensive weapon, persistently soliciting a woman for prostitution from a motor vehicle and possession of heroin.

We can also reveal that some drivers with a string of serious convictions are being refused licences by Luton Borough Council – but are then having those decisions overturned on appeal at magistrates' court.

In one case, magistrates overruled a council Taxi/Private Hire Licensing Panel refusal to grant a licence to a cabbie whose previous convictions included robbery, ABH, theft and possession of cannabis, along with cautions for obtaining service by deception and plying for hire.

A second had convictions for no insurance, driving without due care and attention, making a false statement to obtain insurance, failing to

The catalogue of convictions belonging to the current driver who has the most – 21 – is as follows:

- Theft from a vehicle
- Possessing a controlled drug – Class B, cannabis
- Driving while disqualified
- No insurance
- Failing to surrender to custody at appointed time (seven counts)
- Theft
- Theft – shoplifting (six counts)
- Attempted theft – shoplifting
- Breach of probation order
- Speeding

comply with traffic signals and speeding, while another had convictions for possessing an offensive weapon in a public place and speeding.

The figures came to light following a request under the Freedom of Information Act by Luton on Sunday which also revealed ten cabbies have cautions for various offences.

Ministry of Justice spokeswoman Zoe Campbell said: "There seem to be a lot of pieces of legislation that apply to taxi licensing and I think the answer is that the magistrates use whatever legislation is relevant to the particular case."

A council spokesman said: "The formal process which is followed is set out by law and the council's policy. Each application is considered on its merits. Any applicant who is unhappy about

The 44 drivers' total of 151 convictions are made up of 45 different offences including:

- Possession of an offensive weapon
- Persistently soliciting a woman for prostitution from a motor vehicle
- Possession of heroin
- Wounding
- Fraud
- Driving a motor vehicle with excess alcohol (four counts)
- Burglary with intention to steal
- Failing to stop after an accident
- Theft of a vehicle
- Obstructing police (three counts)
- Dangerous driving a decision by the council has the right to appeal to magistrates. Likewise, should any party be aggrieved about a decision by magistrates they have the right to appeal to a higher court."

The council said it does not know if any of the borough's 1,566 current licence holders are listed on the sex offenders' register because 'the Licensing Service does not have access to the register'.

No current licence holders have previous convictions for any of the following offences: murder, manslaughter, rape, any sexual offences against minors, sexual offences generally, GBH, GBH with Intent, stalking, firearms offences and terrorism.

Teen trio in car pursuit arrest

THREE teenagers were arrested after a high-speed car chase with police.

A black VW Golf stolen from Chester refused to stop for officers and was followed by a police car from Leagrave Road to Moat Lane, Luton, at around 1.40pm on Thursday.

In some areas, in particular Old Bedford Road, the car was driven at very high speeds and sometimes even along footpaths.

Detectives are investigating the matter and believe the car had been used in other crimes.

The arrested men are aged 16, 17 and 18 and are from the Midlands. Anyone with information about this case or who witnessed to the chase should contact Detective Sergeant Maz Wheeler, in confidence, on 01582 394302, or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

MBEs for duo in Birthday Honours

THE Queen's Birthday Honours List recognised the outstanding services of two key figures in the community.

Barry George, of Dunstable, was made an MBE for his services to public libraries in Luton along with Cheryl Smart, chief executive of Luton and Bedfordshire Chamber of Commerce, for her contribution to business.

The vast majority of the awards, published yesterday, go to people who make a real contribution to their area.

County's police are looking at £19.2m possible future shortfall

BEDFORDSHIRE Police are facing a predicted £19.2 million funding gap in the next few years.

The force previously announced it was having to cope with a gap of more than £11m up to 2012/13.

Deputy Chief Constable John Fletcher (above) said that the force had already been planning for the 'very significant' cut in funding.

Luton on Sunday has previously reported that the number of police officers would be cut by up to 60 this year. Mr Fletcher said the number would rise up to 110 the following year and that a possibility of losing further officers was very real.

He said that a number of police staff would be made redundant and said the figure was around 30 for this year.

He added: "The Bedfordshire Police organisational structure is being reviewed and we are considering a move to a new policing model to ensure local policing is the priority."

"We are also reviewing the support services and Bedfordshire Police Authority has already agreed a strategic collaboration alliance within Hertfordshire and Cambridgeshire."

The force was put on notice after the Government's budget announcement that it should consider funding reductions of 70 per cent over the next four years.

Now the estimate is thought to be £19.2m by 2014/15.

On Tuesday members of the police authority Compliance and Risk Management Committee will discuss the potential impact of the 'significant budget gap' over the medium term.

A POWER cut at a hospital which forced the cancellation of nearly 150 operations has been blamed on 'hidden' damage done by a contractor.

Patients at Luton & Dunstable Hospital had to be transferred as a result of the outage on November 30 last year, while others requiring non-emergency surgery had to have their procedures postponed.

The power cut did not affect emergency surgery and only the A&E block was hit, although the fire service was called to help out and used equipment usually reserved for major chemical decontamination incidents to provide power, shelter, light and heat at A&E.

In L&D Trust Board minutes recently released after a Freedom of Information request, general manager of estates and facilities Ian Allen said a length of cable was 'scarred during works for the St Mary's Wing'.

He added: 'We feel this is damage that has been hidden by the contractor.'

As a result, 146 operations were cancelled because only three of the hospital's operating theatres had uninterrupted power supply back-up. The biggest surgery area affected was orthopaedics.

There had been an 'impact on targets' and the hospital 'lost income which it needed to recover'.

L&D director of finance Andrew Harwood is recorded in the minutes as saying: "The biggest concern regarding cancelled operations is in orthopaedics and we should consider seeking financial recompense for additional lists."

A hospital spokeswoman said: "Subsequent investigation into the cause of the incident revealed damage to a cable which appears to have occurred several years ago. The Trust is now in discussion with a third party."

"Since the NHS is publicly funded we feel a strong obligation to seek financial recompense a) to cover the cost of repair; b) to cover the cost of temporary generators and other support costs; and c) cost of catching up for cancelled surgical operations and other activities affected by the power outage.

"We will be seeking compensation for the cost to the taxpayer but since it will involve several parties and is commercially sensitive it would not be appropriate at this stage to provide the names of the contractors involved."

A representative of MJ Gleeson, which confirmed it was the main contractor on work carried out on St Mary's Wing around 'six or seven years ago', was unable to comment.

Fliers double charged in cash-changing gaffe

EXCLUSIVE

BY JONATHAN REILLY

editor@lsmmedia.com

MORE than 200 customers were left out of pocket after a foreign exchange dealer wrongly charged twice for its services.

Holidaymakers leaving from Luton Airport last week were short-changed after currency broker ChangeGroup suffered a problem with its banking systems and charged every customer double on June 3 by mistake.

John Mynard, 42, from Luton, departed from the airport for a short break that day and went to one of the ChangeGroup's five airport branches to get some last-minute cash.

Having taken €50 for the trip, Mr Mynard returned to find that nearly £100 had been taken from his account and contacted the company immediately.

He said: "I realised soon after that they had taken the amount twice from my account and when I went to speak to the ChangeGroup they told me it had happened to lots of other people too."

"I will never be using them again."

The company has since repaid Mr Mynard his cash and has also repaid the 200 others who were affected.

A spokeswoman for ChangeGroup said: "We must point out that this problem affected every business in the UK which used this specific debit card machine system, and did not solely affect customers of ChangeGroup."

"However, from our customers' perspective, this problem was quickly identified, and rectified within 24 hours."

"Immediate action was taken by ChangeGroup to contact the approximately 200 customers affected to make them aware of the situation."

"Working with our banking partners, we have since refunded every customer affected, and have also covered all bank overdraft and other charges which may have been incurred due to this glitch."

"No customer is out of pocket, and we have personally apologised to each and every one of the individuals affected."

"We take customer service very seriously, and we have worked hard to ensure that this issue was rectified quickly and that customers didn't incur any costs personally."

Hatters enjoy day in world's spotlight as Wikipedia puts the club in centre stage

LUTON Town FC was seen by all the world when it made the homepage of Wikipedia on Friday (right).

Hatters were the subject of the 'featured article' for the free encyclopedia, which has 18 million articles available in 281 languages, and it was the club's turn to be in the spotlight for the day.

The club's page is edited by a team of supporters headed by David Hawkes and they keep their eyes on the official website to update sections including history, results and the playing squad.

A statement on the club's own website said: 'It's not often a Premier League club is featured on the main page of one of the most viewed websites in the world, let alone one outside of the Football League. So we think it's quite a feat.' A Wikipedia spokesman said: "Featured articles are considered to be the best articles in Wikipedia, as determined by our editors. "About one in 1,110 articles is listed here."

Wing mirror thieves just love Vauxhalls

A STRING of wing mirror thefts have been sweeping the county with more than 80 taking place in the last six months.

Reports have been received by police of high numbers of colour-coded wing mirror casings being stolen from cars.

Vauxhall, which has a factory in Gipsy Lane, Luton, has been the most targeted brand of car in Luton and Bedford, with 81 offences reported between January and June 1.

Fifty-three of these thefts were from Vauxhalls, with Mark 4 and 5 Astras being the most commonly stolen type.

Detective Constable Vicky Willett said: "The mirror casings are not cheap to replace and because they are not marked by the manufacturers even if we find them it's difficult to trace them back to their rightful owners and prove they are stolen."

"We're investigating the spate of thefts but we also really need the public's help."

"We'd like as many people as possible to write their postcode and house number on the bottom outside edge on the casing."

"We have free ultraviolet markers to give away to people to do this and they are available from Greyfriars, Luton and Dunstable police stations."

Residents to be looked after if homes go bust

BY CHRISTINA JOHNSON

christina.johnson@lutononsunday.co.uk

CONTINGENCY plans are in place to protect residents at crisis-hit Southern Cross care homes.

Concerns are rife after it was revealed the UK's largest care home provider, which runs Kirby House, in West Street, Dunstable and Luton homes Milliner House, in Marsh Road, and The Griffin, in Moorlands Garden, is set to cut 3,000 jobs nationally.

The Griffin was closed down in January, and all provide specialist care for people with dementia.

Southern Cross is responsible for looking after 31,000 residents across 750 homes, and has 44,000 members of staff. It said home managers, deputy managers, relief managers, activity co-ordinators and administrators would not be directly affected and that the cuts are to be completed by October, after a period of consultation with unions.

Cllr Carole Hegley, who is in charge of adult social care, health and housing at Central Bedfordshire Council, said: "We would wish to reassure residents and their families that the council has a contingency plan in place that is ready to be activated if required to ensure continuity of care for residents."

"We do not have any immediate concerns regarding Southern Cross care homes in Central Bedfordshire."

A Luton Borough Council spokesman said: "Southern Cross is the largest care provider in the country and because of its current financial difficulties, contingency plans have been drawn up by Government which would, as appropriate, dovetail into our local contingency plans.

"Clearly our key concern is for the continued quality of care and welfare of the residents. We are working closely with the Care Quality Commission and other agencies to carefully monitor the situation while Southern Cross seeks to resolve its financial problems."

Jamie Buchan, chief executive of Southern Cross, said: "We have a strong set of values and a clear vision to serve the care-related needs of elderly people in our society."

"We are engaging with colleagues to put in place the best possible staffing model for our future needs, and one which fully embraces the best practice available to us."

Airline warn passenger fares will rise due to high oil price

EASYJET'S boss has predicted a rise in passenger fares as a result of soaring fuel prices.

The Luton-based budget airline's chief executive, Carolyn McCall, said the price of tickets would be directly affected after the Organisation of the Petroleum Exporting Countries (Opec) on Thursday left its production levels unchanged.

The oil company had been encouraged to raise production to between one and 1.4 million barrels per day over concerns that crude oil has become too expensive.

Ms McCall said: "We are planning all our budgeting around the fact that oil will remain high, at above $100 a barrel."

"We benefit from having a really, really low cost business. It's in the DNA of the organisation."

"It's highly cost efficient and it has a cost advantage none of the other airlines have other than one."

"It's all about passing on low fares to passengers and that's why we have that cost advantage."

"We will not compromise what's really important in terms of anything to do with the airline."

"I think fares will rise inevitably because you have to pass on fuel costs some way or another. All airlines will have to do it, so all prices will rise."

Over the six months to the end of March, easyJet saw a pre-tax loss of £153 million – almost double last year's figure.

Minister to look at closure of LuDun

EXCLUSIVE

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

BUSINESS Secretary Vince Cable will look into the decision to shut down a disabled workers factory as only its sole able-bodied staff member has since secured a new job.

LuDun, in Liscombe Road, Dunstable, was closed down on May 25 by Central Bedfordshire Council in a bid to save £300,000, and all its 24 staff were made redundant.

Since then, none of the 23 disabled ex-workers has taken up a new role, but the one able-bodied former staff member has.

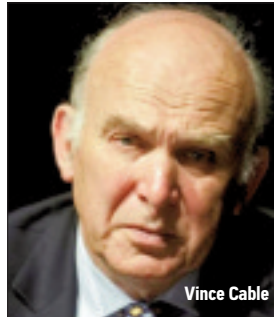

On Monday disabled Eddie Costello, who was one of those to have lost his LuDun job, told Liberal Democrat Minister, Mr Cable about the council's decision at the GMB union's annual conference in Brighton.

Mr Cable said he would look into Central Beds' decision as he is 'completely committed to protecting disabled people from discrimination'.

Mr Costello said: "Despite many viable alternatives to closure and assurances of re-deployment none of the disabled workers, including me, has been found another job.

Eddie Costello

Vince Cable

The council is selling all the workshop machinery.

"What influence can Liberal Democrats bring on the Coalition Government for fair treatment for people with disabilities and could you give us a commitment that you will look into this for me and let me know?"

Mr Cable told GMB Congress: "I will certainly look in more detail into that - as far as I can establish from his question I think the issue related to decisions taken by the local council but obviously if there are a substantial number of disabled workers who've lost their jobs as a result, then I ought to look at this carefully and I will certainly undertake to do that because we're completely committed to protecting disabled people from discrimination."

CLr Carole Hegley said: "The process which led up to the closure of the LuDun workshop was transparent, legal and involved employees at each stage.

"We carried out a thorough assessment into the equality implications of the proposals and this was updated on a number of occasions including taking into account comments from GMB representatives.

"The council has provided a lot of support to those employees who wanted to find alternative work. However, we have been particularly careful not to raise their expectations, particularly in the current economic climate."

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes - not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Billy Harley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Luton, Dunstable and Stevenage areas and Billy is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Billy a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Conmen hit streets to 'collect' for ambulance

BY LUI STRACCIA

lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

BOGUS air ambulance charity collection officers are trying to con residents into giving them donations of up to £25.

The official East Anglian Air Ambulance (EAAA) said it is concerned 'vital funds' are being lost because kind-hearted donors in Bedfordshire are being asked to give money to people they wrongly believe are collecting on its behalf.

Following a spate of leaflet drops and clothing bag collections from organisations purporting to be 'the air ambulance', EAAA is urging people to be wary and check with them if they are in any doubt.

A dubious organisation calling itself 'the Air Ambulance Service' has distributed leaflets across parts of the county, claiming it is collecting unwanted items which are urgently needed so they can 'financially assist to cover or reduce the cost of ground air ambulance medical transportation for patients caught in difficult medical circumstances'.

It does, however, state in the small print that they are not associated to any local helicopter emergency medical service. The EAAA has also been made aware that other 'air ambulances' are asking for donations of between £1 and £25 to sustain their service.

Steve Whitby, chief operating officer of the EAAA, said: "We've been made aware of a number of organisations which are claiming to be an air ambulance covering the region but we would like to make it clear to our supporters that we are the only dedicated air ambulance service covering Bedfordshire.

"It's a real shame to hear that these organisations are trying to cash in on people's generosity and risk leaving a charity without the funds it needs to continue saving lives across the East of England.

"We have fantastic support from the people of Bedfordshire and don't want them to be misled. We operate a range of fundraising initiatives across the region we serve and I'd just like to remind people that anything coming from us will be clearly branded 'EAAA'.

"We do work with a company called 'World UK Limited' which is authorised to collect clothing donations on our behalf and another called 'Engage People' who canvass for our very successful lottery, but these are the only two organisations we work with.

"If people are in any doubt, we ask them to give us a call to clarify that the donation they wish to make will come directly to us."

The EAAA receives no direct Government funding and therefore relies solely on donations. Those in any doubt as to where their donation is going should check at www.eaaa.org.uk or call 08450 669 999.

Town comes under fire

SIR - Charlie Cromwell is spot on with his observations on Luton's tawdry sites and I share his exasperation.

The town centre in the evening is a no-go area for those of a certain age or families seeking entertainment.

Whatever happened, I wonder, to the continental café culture mooted some years ago? Pie in the sky along with plans for a centrally-located swimming pool and new theatre, it seems.

Anyone seeking half-decent conventional theatre is resigned to a trip to Milton Keynes, Dunstable or St Albans. And what about that commercial area wasteland stretching from the foot of Crawley Green Road all the way to Guildford Street?

Cllr Peter Hollick beat me to the punch with his taunt that Luton Hoo is beyond the town boundaries. I noted the irony of that when the city status bid was launched there.

Why on earth wasn't, say, Vauxhall Conference Centre chosen? An own goal there, methinks, or a tacit admission that a town which aspires to city status glaringly lacks a focal point civic centre.

Gary Needham
Leygreen Close, Luton

Why bid for city status?

SIR - I was hoping for a response from Gavin Shaker, one in which he explained all of the exciting things happening to the town, but instead I received a response from James A Malcolm who seems to have missed the point of the argument (although he did point out that I could travel to Hexton if I wanted to see a flower show).

Since the late 1960s the town council has systematically torn the heart out of Luton. In other towns and cities efforts are made to preserve the original architecture and character, but not Luton.

The Arndale Centre, aka The Mall, wiped out every trace of the original town centre from the map years ago and replaced it with a concrete box full of the kind of shops that send Lutonians scurrying to Milton Keynes or Hatfield in search of something unusual to buy.

In the 1980s the council paved George Street but won't allow it to be used for a street market or boot sale, attractions that would bring shoppers to the town on a Saturday afternoon.

They killed off a thriving local art scene by allowing their headquarters to fall into decay and then replacing it with a corporate version that stifles freedom of expression with health and safety and noise restrictions.

And finally, they've enforced traffic calming on just about every road in the town making Luton the speed-bump capital of Bedfordshire (it's a shame they don't award city status for the amount of speed bumps in a town, Luton would win hands down).

Luton's just another ordinary town with ordinary amenities and ordinary aspirations, the kind of town that attracts transient commuters and refugees spawning ghettos where 'Luton in Harmony' is the sound of squabbling drug dealers fighting for their turf.

Why anyone would want to support a bid for city status is beyond me, but I'm certain Gavin knows the answer.

Charlie Cromwell,
Leagrove

LuDun workshop could have been saved

SIR - I am writing in response to Cllr Peter Hollick's missive regarding LuDun in last week's Luton on Sunday (June 5).

It is very unfortunate that Cllr Hollick and his Central Beds peers seem unable or unwilling to accept any responsibility for the closure of the LuDun workshop. The GMB Union first made representations to the council at least six months before the final closure at the end of May.

In fact, I personally made representations at the council executive in February where all LuDun staff attended to lobby the councillors for support. Unfortunately the majority of Central Beds councillors did not make the effort to come out and speak to the workers or show any support.

A local independent business group wrote directly to Cllr Hollick suggesting a number of ways that the council could quite easily return the workshop to a viable business.

The suggestions included a review of the council's procurement procedures and, a removal of the marketing ban that the trustees, (almost all of which are councillors too) and council had placed on the workshop.

The independent business advice was ignored, in the same way the many other credible alternatives were, including using a very small percentage of council reserves while the council adopted a viable business plan for the workshop.

The GMB offered to assist the trustees with looking at the other options including whether the York Disabled Workers Co-operative model could be followed for LuDun. These discussions were put off because Cllr Hollick 'needed to concentrate on his election campaign' and this was very unfortunate too.

I'm afraid Cllr Hollick fails to differentiate between being responsible or in any way accountable for this unjustified action and somehow arrived at a position where he and his colleagues are more interested in turning this into a political argument.

Finally, Cllr Hollick states that the former LuDun employees have and continue to receive 'excellent support' from Central Bedfordshire Council. I was at the workshop on the day it closed.

Not one councillor or trustee could be found.

I am aware through a GMB survey that none of the Disabled staff have been found an alternative job through the re-employment process. Is this the 'excellent support' Cllr Hollick is referring to?

Love Luton? It seems not

SIR - There is one thing that Luton's got the best of in the country... that's bad drivers.

I've just had a week's holiday in Great Yarmouth, Norfolk. The first thing I noticed was I only saw one driver using a mobile phone.

Yet in Luton, in my opinion, nine out of ten drivers seem to be using their mobiles while driving. If you drive around Great Yarmouth in the evening, about 7pm, the roads are clear.

In Luton, you get traffic jams 24/7, Luton drivers are aggressive, selfish, arrogant, and practice no driving skills.

They speed, cut you up, and boy do they like to jump a red light. Is it the roads in Luton, or is it that Luton is a very crowded and stressful place to live these days?

I've lived here 53 years. I don't know why.

Run triathlon for charity

SIR - I am writing to let you know about Tri Together, a triathlon event launched by Leonard Cheshire Disability.

As triathlon becomes one of the fastest growing sports in the UK, the charity has decided to run an event that is accessible to everyone. Tri Together will see disabled and non-disabled people, sports enthusiasts and novices, all competing side by side at the iconic Crystal Palace National Sports Centre on Sunday, September 11.

I started competing in triathlon events two years ago, after I was diagnosed with a neurological disorder and had begun to use a wheelchair. I had always enjoyed sport and didn't want to give it up. I found triathlons were not only great fun, but felt inclusive too.

Everyone who is doing a triathlon knows it is tough, which is why they encourage each other along the way, creating a fantastic atmosphere. It is a great way to cement friendships and meet new people.

Tri Together is a chance for everyone over the age of 17 to have a go at a triathlon, either on their own or in a team of two or three. People who might not normally consider doing a triathlon can experience all the positives of taking part in a big sports event.

As well as having fun and challenging yourself, you will be raising money to help Leonard Cheshire Disability to continue supporting thousands of disabled people across the UK. So why not sign up today, and see what we can achieve together?

To secure a place contact the events team by emailing tritotogether@LCDisability.org or calling 020 3242 0294. A registration fee of £30 and minimum sponsorship apply. For more information visit www.lcdisability.org/tritotogether

Cancer fund road race

SIR - World Cancer Research Fund (WCRF) is offering runners the chance to sign up for one of the most prestigious road races of the year - the 'British 10k' in London.

We have a limited number of places for runners for the July 10 event, which takes in sights including Trafalgar Square, the London Eye, St Paul's Cathedral, Tower Bridge, the Houses of Parliament, Westminster Abbey and Downing Street.

Last year more than 25,000 runners took part, cheered on by tens of thousands of onlookers in a superb atmosphere.

WCRF is calling on runners who can raise money for our cancer prevention research and education programmes to sign up for the race by emailing events@wcrf.org, visiting our website at www.wcrf-uk.org/ sign up or calling 020 7343 4200.

Look after racehorses

SIR - Since the launch of Animal Aid's Race Horse Deathwatch website www.horsedeathwatch.com just over four years ago, more than 700 horses have been killed on British racecourses.

Fatalities occur at an average rate of one every other day on Britain's 60 racecourses. On June 1, eight-year-old gelding, Katalak, broke a leg while racing at Fontwell, and within hours, three-year-old filly Sobea Star was destroyed at Ripon in Yorkshire.

Two deaths in April's Grand National and the abuse of the winning horse with the whip, highlighted growing public, media and political concern about the failure to protect the welfare of racehorses.

The British Horseracing Authority (BHA), which has responsibility for the welfare of racehorses, has shown itself to be incapable of tackling the problems that beset the industry.

It's time for the Government to strip the BHA of its role as the industry's regulator, and to undertake and put into the public domain a full audit of race horse production, death and injury.

For more information on race horse deaths or to order a Horse Racing Information Pack, visit www.animalaid.org.uk or call 01732 364546.

Hail bid for city status

SIR - I am delighted with the energy and effort many people in the town have put into the attempt to win city status.

There is a big field chasing this major prize and even if we do not win we should be prepared to take the many, many positives from the excellent application that has been put forward.

What this issue has brought to the forefront is evidence of massive belief from people throughout the town - from householders to businesses - in what we can achieve.

I have no doubt at all that whatever the outcome, Luton will emerge a stronger and better place and feel content there will be lots for our much maligned town to build on.

Check family benefits

SIR - With National Family Week underway, it is especially important to examine the issues facing many families in Britain today.

Research recently published by the Relationships Foundation paints a disquieting picture of Britain as one of the worst countries in Europe for families.

As outlined in their comprehensive report, stress from money and work, together with a lack of support and critical levels of debt are major contributing factors, and this leaves one in every five families struggling to make ends meet.

In addition, almost a quarter of the average UK working family's income is spent on childcare costs, which is double and sometimes treble the spend of European counterparts.

With National Family Week's own research showing a third of parents are suffering due to government spending cuts, this situation could be set to worsen, especially if recently proposed childcare cuts go ahead.

The latest annual figures show that around £19.1 billion of welfare benefits go unclaimed, which could provide vital additional income for parents to help them care for their families.

At this time of major pressures, and multiple changes to the welfare system, it is more important than ever that families check their entitlement to welfare benefits and tax credits and the support that grant-giving organisations can offer.

They can do this by visiting our free and confidential benefit and grant checking service at www.turn2us.org.uk or by phoning freephone 0808 802 2000 (Monday to Friday 8am-8pm) to ensure they are accessing all the financial help possible.

Cops in plea to pair who helped man hurt in attack

lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

DETECTIVES want to speak to two people who helped the victim of a robbery after he was struck from behind and knocked unconscious.

A young man was walking along Butterworth Path, Luton, on the evening of June 3 while talking on his mobile phone.

He was suddenly hit and lost consciousness for a short while. When he came around, his mobile was missing and he was being helped by two young men. These two people then escorted him home.

It is believed he may have been attacked by four people, possibly all male, between 7.30pm and 8pm, but no other details are available. Police would like to speak to the two young men who helped the victim and also to any other people who may have been in the area at the time of the attack.

The only description of his helpers is that they were both young Asian males.

The stolen mobile was a black iPhone.

If you were one of the people who helped this young man, or you are someone with information about the robbery, contact Detective Constable Surfaz Hussain, in confidence, on 01234 841212; or text your message to 07786 200011; or contact Crime-stoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Mayor leads celebrations at opening of housing complex

THE opening of a new Marsh Farm housing complex, Jeremiah Smith House, has been officially celebrated.

The building is named after Jeremiah Smith who, in 1789, was the first recorded tenant to farm the land now known as the Marsh Farm Estate. It marks the completion of the award-winning regeneration project which has delivered 24 one and two-bedroom flats for social rent.

In partnership with the Marsh Farm Community Development Trust and builders VE Parrott Oakley the scheme has provided much-needed modern homes in the area and access to apprentice-ships and work placements. Jacki Jenkins, who won a competition to name the new building, unveiled a plaque along with the Mayor of Luton and Luton North MP Kelvin Hopkins.

Mr Hopkins said: "I am delighted to be here to help open this wonderful new building and superb flats."

"I have been involved with Marsh Farm for 40 years and it is fantastic to see these beautiful new homes being built for the residents."

"These homes will have a positive impact on the residents as having an attractive place to live makes you feel better about life."

Sportivate will offer sporting opportunities for disabled and non-disabled participants, while providers and sports clubs will help those who have taken part to continue playing sport long after they have completed the course.

Lloyd Conaway, director of team Beds & Luton, said: "This fantastic new programme is aimed at all young people and not just the few."

"Sportivate aims to get those who aren't currently playing sport in their own time to get out and give

team BEDS LUTON
activity for life

sport a go and fulfil the legacy promise made by Seb Coe in Singapore in 2005 to 'inspire young people to choose sport'.

"Nationally Sportivate aims to see 300,000 young people completing sports courses over the four years of the programme.

"We will be doing all we can to encourage as many as possible from our area to take up the offer."

"London 2012 will be showcasing sport in this country and we hope that locally projects such as this will inspire all young people to have a go themselves."

As an additional incentive for the young people to stick with sport, participants will have the chance to enter a ballot for free London 2012 tickets.

Sport England has a number of Olympic and Paralympic tickets available for Sportivate participants via the London 2012 Ticketshare initiative.

Airport check-in force is with interstellar travellers

DARTH Vader and R2D2 put their intergalactic differences to one side when they tested out the automated check-in at a Luton Airport car park.

The Star Wars hero and villain (right) helped promote the 'futuristic nature' of the new automated ticketing system at parking provider Airparks' Grove Road facility this week.

An army of Princess Leias and Stormtroopers served cocktails at the launch of the innovative check-in/check-out, where passengers park in the arrivals area, check in at one of the six machines, deposit their car keys in the secure box on the way to the waiting shelter before being whisked off to the airport in a fleet of safe, modern buses.

When they return from the airport they scan their receipt in the automatic key dispenser, which delivers their keys in under four seconds.

Fly back in time...

At the Ulster Folk & Transport Museum follow the trail through a hundred years of TITANICa. Look around and be captivated by the era of the world's most famous ship. Discover more than 500 original artefacts, including the RMS Titanic objects recovered from the bottom of the icy Atlantic. This incredible exhibition will fascinate and mesmerise you as you hear the stories of those who witnessed that era.

Sharp rise in number of disability claimants

BY LUI STRACCIA
lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE number of disabled people in Luton claiming benefits has rocketed by more than 30 per cent since 2002.

There are 8,040 Disability Living Allowance (DLA) claimants in the town, compared with 6,170 nine years ago, statistics released this week showed.

The sharp rise has been mirrored across the county, with the numbers of people on DLA rising by 32 per cent in eight years.

Luton borough has the highest number of claimants in the county, 8,040, followed by the Central Bedfordshire district on 7,980, and Bedford borough on 6,180.

In Bedfordshire, 22,200 residents were claiming DLA in November 2010 - up more than 5,000 from 16,860 in 2002.

Maria Miller, Minister for Disabled People, said: "The number of people claiming DLA has soared, but it's clear that the right support is not always getting to those who need it the most."

"DLA needs to help disabled people live independently and remove the barriers that they face in day-to-day life."

The Coalition Government is replacing DLA with a Personal Independence Payment (PIP) to include reassessments over time to ensure everyone receives the correct support as their needs change.

"PIP will continue to be a non-means tested benefit, paid in and out of work, to help disabled people with the extra care and mobility costs they incur."

Mrs Miller added: "We are committed to ensuring that the £12bn spent on DLA every year goes to where it can make the most difference."

"Our reforms will make it simpler and easier to understand and will mean that we will have more contact with people so that if their condition changes they can get any extra help and support they might need."

"We are working with disabled people and disability organisations on our reforms to make sure we get them right."

More people looking for work than jobs available

THERE are more than six unemployed JobSeekers Allowance claimants in Luton chasing each vacancy.

Luton borough currently has 939 openings and a total of 5,824 potential applicants, putting the exact rate at 6.2 - the fourth highest level in the East of England, the GMB Union said on Wednesday.

That figure is higher than the national average of 5.8 unemployed people bidding for every job available, with nearby Bedford's level put at precisely six (660 vacancies and 3,971 unemployed).

Paul Hayes, the GMB's Regional Secretary, said: "Government spending did not cause the crisis."

Nor did public borrowing. There was no problem with the public finances before the banks got into terrible trouble, causing confidence to collapse and the economy to sink into recession.

"As the recession hit home, firms and families cut back on their spending, tax revenues sank and public borrowing soared."

Teacher overcomes

AS an active, sporty teenager dreaming of sharing his passion with future youngsters, Mark Wakeman thought his ambition was dashed when he found out he had an abnormal spinal condition.

He was devastated to find out his spine was rapidly curving to the right due to scoliosis and if it got any worse he would need a nine-hour operation which would involve having metal rods fitted down his back.

Scoliosis is an abnormal curvature of the spine to one side. In people with the condition, the spine bends either to the left or right.

The curvature in the spine can vary from being slight to severe. The bend can occur at any point along the spine, from the top to the bottom.

In the UK, scoliosis affects three to four children out of every 1,000. The condition can develop at any time during childhood and adolescence.

Scoliosis is usually not serious, but treatment is essential. Left untreated, the curvature of the spine can get worse and cause damage to the spine, chest, pelvis, heart and lungs.

After endless X-rays and appointments with various specialists Mark was told that he would need surgery as soon as possible.

Although he was aware that his condition was progressing quickly, he was not in any pain and was desperate to avoid losing his

WHEN Mark Wakeman was 17 he was given what he thought was going to be a 'life sentence' of pain and discomfort when he was told his spine was rapidly curving to the right. Amazingly – six years on – Mr Wakeman, of Biscot Road, Luton, began a job at a secondary school teaching PE two weeks ago, especially as the treatment for his scoliosis only ended last month. flexibility. He knew that if he had spinal fusion surgery it would be impossible for him to be involved in contact sports ever again.

Mark, now 23, explained how this outlook affected his life.

He said: "After I had seen the hospital consultant I slipped into a deep depression. I felt as if I had no hope at all and rarely spoke about my back.

"When I asked what other treatments were available I was told that I was too old and the condition too severe for a back brace and that general physiotherapy would not work.

serious back ailment to realise his dream

"While all this was going on my mum, Kathy, had started to do her own research and had found a Scoliosis SOS clinic in Suffolk that specialised in the treatment of the condition."

Mark had been suffering from excruciating back pain but had completed his teacher training and was applying for jobs. But he was worried his condition would affect his career.

He said: "Although I was very enthusiastic about starting my new career, I was also extremely concerned about the problems I might face teaching young children sports when I was in agony and struggling to move around."

After a consultation at Scoliosis SOS, he booked an intensive course.

Following a long and hard battle, Mark is now pain free and beginning his teaching career.

Mark, who started teaching at a Luton secondary school two weeks ago, said: "I have always wanted to teach. I was devastated when I was told that I had scoliosis."

"I feel like I have been given a new lease of life."

BRIGHT FUTURE:

"I can't wait to start giving something back to the community. It would be great if we could get all young children to start enjoying exercise again."

"It's so important, especially for children as they are the future. It's amazing the difference exercise can make, I just wish this treatment was recommended to patients rather than fast-tracking them for surgery."

Suspended prison term for £5,000 benefit fraud

BY LUI STRACCIA

lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

A BENEFIT fraudster has been given a suspended prison sentence for stealing £5,000.

Mohammed Ali, 55, of Lansdowne Road, Luton, fraudulently obtained the money by deliberately covering up his true financial circumstances.

He appeared at Luton Magistrates' Court on two charges of dishonestly providing Luton Borough Council with false and misleading information while claiming housing benefit.

When the council's Audit and Investigations Team examined Ali's benefit claim form, they discovered that despite Ali stating he was not related to his landlord, she was in fact his daughter-in-law.

A detailed investigation then revealed that Ali had also failed to disclose that his wife owned a property in Ash Road, which was rented out for £750 a month.

Ali was sentenced to six weeks imprisonment suspended for 12 months, with a condition that he undertakes 100 hours unpaid work. He was also ordered to pay £150 towards the prosecution costs and repay the £5,088.

Another benefit fraudster, Iwona Linka, 32, of Tenby Drive, was convicted at the magistrates' court after pleading guilty to deliberately not telling the council about her husband's new job and continued receiving housing benefits totalling £3,915.

Magistrates sentenced her to a 12-month Community Order with 70 hours unpaid work, and ordered her to pay £661 towards the prosecution costs. She will also have to repay the money.

Cllr Robin Harris, portfolio holder for finance, said: "Stealing benefits is a crime. If you act like a thief, you will be treated like a thief."

If you think someone you know is claiming benefits illegally, call the fraud hotline in total confidence on 0500 500 777 or email fraud@luton.gov.uk

Your chance to have say on social care issues

WHAT are your thoughts on social care?

That is the question being asked by Central Bedfordshire Council.

Government policy states that people needing care and support should have a greater say in and control over how their care needs are met.

In line with this, the council is encouraging those who want to remain as independent as possible to decide how to meet their needs.

A 'Personal Budget' may be allocated to buy care services appropriate to their individual needs, as opposed to being prescribed a set care package.

The results of this survey will enable the council to ensure that people who opt to have a Personal Budget will receive the best support services possible.

Examples of support include:

- Having the right information and advice to make decisions
- Knowing what's available locally
- Drawing on specialist advice where necessary, for example legal and employment advice

- Exploring how best to organise support that suits the person
- Setting up support systems and long term management arrangements

The questionnaire can be found at www.centralbedfordshire.gov.uk/surveys/Brokerage/support.htm

The closing date for responses to this survey is July 29. Paper copies of the survey can be obtained by ringing Cheryl Stimson on 0300 300 5176.

Thinking of retraining?

As we begin to emerge from the recession, there are still many people who are left unemployed

Thousands of people are still unable to find work in the field where they had plied their trade for most of their professional careers.

However, one in five adults intends to gain further qualifications with colleges reporting increased enrolments, according to a study by YouGov.

The survey of more than 2,000 adults last year found that in excess of 8.4million people have switched careers in the previous three years and a further 3.2million intended to do so in the year after. Money was a deciding factor in 2/5 of respondents.

Even if you are trying to get back into the same field of work as you were in before, it is still a good idea to gain more skills. Training courses are run at colleges, universities, private course providers, advice centres and adult education centres.

If you are not working, you may be entitled to financial help with your fees and if you cannot commit to a timetabled course or would rather work at your own pace, you can enrol in a distance learning course.

education & training matters develop your education & training goals

Getting off to good start

You don't need to be told how much of a big deal choosing a school for your child is. It's probably been on your mind since your child was born.

While reputation plays a big part, take a look around the schools in the local area. Take advantage of open days or, if you prefer, organise an appointment and have an individual tour with a senior member of staff.

School is not only a place of learning in terms of academia, but also in the social sense.

School is an important part of your child's life, as they learn to mix with their peers and to make friends. Ask about the facilities such as after school care. Speaking to the local authority helps too. League tables and exam results can give you a good reflection of the performance of a school. Asking children who already go to a particular school is a good way to get a grasp of what pupils think. It is surprising how unbiased and informative children can be. Observe how teachers react with their pupils and if you can, don't hesitate to speak to parents who are picking their children up at the end of the day. If you explain your reasoning for asking they will be more likely to help, as they too will have been in the same situation. Lastly, and arguably most importantly, see how your child feels about the school. Take on board their comments and opinions. If they respond positively, they are more likely to have a positive experience.

Bring your dancing shoes and get your groove on

MUSIC

DUNSTABLE LIVE

Grove House Gardens, Dunstable
Saturday - midday-5pm

GET in the groove at Grove House Gardens with Dunstable Live for an afternoon of music.

Recognised as the genre that attracts all ages, Motown comes to Dunstable's Grove House Gardens on Saturday with a free event of well known hits.

Kicking off at midday with a tribute to the dynamic diva Diana Ross, the day continues with classic tracks from the legendary Lionel Richie, the delightful Dusty Springfield (be amazed at how many hits she had) and, picking up the pace at 3pm, the Godfather of Motown himself, James Brown will 'make you feel good'.

Closing the afternoon of Motown magic you'll be transported back to the days of the Drifters as Ray Lewis, the original Drifters member, will perform fantastic hits to get the crowd singing and dancing such as 'Under The Boardwalk', 'Up On The Roof', 'There Goes My Baby' and many, many more.

To enhance your enjoyment and to ensure that you don't have to leave to find food or drink, there will be an outside bar and food available.

Just bring your dancing feet and your Motown mojo to enjoy five hours of leisurely, legendary lyrics from the Motown tribute masters and the great man himself, Ray Lewis.

The day's line-up features:

Midday - Diana Ross tribute

1pm - Lionel Richie tribute

2pm - Dusty Springfield tribute

3pm - James Brown tribute

4pm - Drifting on with Ray Lewis

Enjoy jazz over lunch

MUSIC

ALL THAT JAZZ

Luton Hoo Hotel
Every Sunday - 1pm-4pm

COOL Sunday lunchtime jazz is now on the menu every week at Luton Hoo Hotel, Golf & Spa. Due to their popularity, the hotel is now hosting jazz lunches each week instead of once a month.

Lunches are served in the Adam's Brasserie housed within the historic Grade II listed country club designed by the famous 18th century architect Robert Adams.

Luton Hoo's resident jazz trio, Mood Music, play while guests enjoy a relaxed three-course meal in the brasserie, which overlooks a courtyard with outdoor seating.

The weekly jazz lunches cost £35 per person and for reservations and further information call 01582 698888.

Tribute rock band gives
Bon Jovi a good name

MUSIC

THE BON JOVI EXPERIENCE

Grove Theatre, Dunstable
Friday, at 7.30pm

THE Bon Jovi Experience is an outstanding tribute to the legendary rock band.

They are the only Bon Jovi tribute band in the world to have actually played and shared a stage with Jon Bon Jovi himself. Fans will have thought there were two Bon Jovis on stage that night, so much does lead singer Tony resemble Jon.

Formed in 1983, the real Bon Jovi have sold more than 120 million albums worldwide, and they performed more than 2,600 concerts in over 50 countries for more than 34 million fans.

In 2006, they were inducted into the UK Music Hall of Fame, and in 2004 they were ranked number 14 in Q magazine's 50 Greatest Bands of All Time.

Recreating Bon Jovi Live in Concert, The Bon Jovi Experience perform all the great hits - from Livin' On a Prayer to Keep the Faith, from Bad Medicine to You Give Love a Bad Name, and many more.

The Bon Jovi Experience features Jon Bon Jovi clone frontman Tony (Jon By Jovi), with Jon (Tico) on drums, Steve C (Hugh) on bass and Chris (Dave) on keyboards. With Edd (Richie Sambora - guitarist) in place, together they produce the looks and sounds of the real thing very closely.

Tickets cost £18.50 and can be booked via the box office on 01582 602080 or online at www.grove-theatre.co.uk

Breakfast club

– with Heart FM's
Stuart and Natalie

WHAT a week it's been on X Factor, with the judging panel starting the auditions in Birmingham last week, with no Cheryl Cole or Dannii Minogue on the judges' red carpet.

Instead we had Louis Walsh along with Kelly Rowland and Tulisa from N-Dubz and of course Gary Barlow who told us how he's not scared of taking over Simon Cowell's spot and that he was looking forward to bonding with his fellow judges, let's hope he's not too tired from the Take That tour!

With the shock revelation that Cheryl had been sacked from the US X Factor we wanted to know what the UK judges had to say about it.

Louis Walsh told us that whilst Simon and Cheryl weren't going to get married, they were definitely going to remain friends and that Cheryl had text him to say she was fine! Watch this space we say.

If you're an X-Men fan, you'll know the new movie is out starring Kevin Bacon this time around, who told us the movie would definitely appeal to the ladies as there was a lot of men in lycra and one of its other cast members James McAvoy confessed to eating a salmon sandwich not knowing he was due to kiss Angeline Jolie on the set of the action film Wanted straight after!

Finally, we are really looking forward to catching up with David Walliams later this week. He'll be chatting about Come Fly With Me and whether there'll be another series but will mainly be talking about his new children's book called The Billionaire Boy.

It is a simple enough story about a family whose life changes thanks to his father's breakthrough product - wet and dry loo paper which brings in the pennies.

We'll let you know how we got on with him next week!

Tribute to Queen is a kind of magic

MUSIC

MERCURY - THE VERY BEST OF QUEEN

Grove Theatre, Dunstable
Thursday, at 7.30pm

MERCURY - The Very Best of Queen are a tribute group who have performed before the legends Brian May and Roger Taylor themselves.

Recapturing the sight, sound and emotion of Queen with skilful instrumentation and superbly crafted harmonies, Mercury were formed in 1998 and since then have gone on to play theatres, festivals and high profile shows across the UK and Europe.

These include the Millennium Stadium in Cardiff and prestigious shows at a New Year's Eve festival in Dubai which was broadcast live to millions via MTV Asia as well as an exclusive concert for Queen's own Roger Taylor.

After over a decade on tour, Mercury is now established as one of the world's most authentic tributes to Freddie Mercury and Queen.

Most recently, Mercury have been asked to perform at the unveiling of the first memorial to Freddie Mercury in the UK in front of Queen's Brian May and Freddie Mercury's family in Feltham.

Mercury - The Very Best of Queen's 2011 tour will include fantastic renditions of the most popular Queen hits as well as some additional tracks from the band's vast back catalogue.

With a dynamic stage show that fully emulates the true charismatic appeal of rock's most flamboyant front man backed up by superbly crafted harmonies and intricate guitar work, Mercury faithfully and accurately recreate the distinctive Queen experience.

Tickets cost £18.50 and can be booked via the box office on 01582 602080 or online at www.grovetheatre.co.uk

Led concerts brought to life

BOOK REVIEW

FEATHER IN THE WIND - OVER EUROPE

by Dave Lewis

Tight But Loose Publishing, out now

DAVE Lewis is the world's premier chronicler of rock legends Led Zeppelin, and his new book touches on what is a relatively undocumented period of the band's history.

Following on from his previous book, titled 'Then As It Was,' which documents the two gigs at Knebworth Park in 1979, his new effort focuses on the 1980 tour of Europe, the last tour that the band embarked on before the untimely death of drummer John Bonham.

The success of the tour looked to revive Led Zeppelin somewhat, and saw them plan a tour of America, which sadly the death of Bonham stopped.

Dave himself originally only planned to see one of the shows, in Cologne, but ended up seeing four more.

His account of the tour is recalled from memory in intricate detail and he also compiles a series of guest accounts, capturing the moments that he missed.

Filled with details such as set lengths, banter between the band and the crowd, bootlegs and countless pages of photographs of memorabilia, this is a superb book for those who went on the tour to recall countless memories.

It's also a great purchase for any Zeppelin fan who may not have experienced the shows first hand, or for someone like me, who is just an avid fan of rock music.

Dave, from Bedfordshire, put it quite well himself: "If you weren't there then, you can be now."

WIGMORE PRIMARY SCHOOL

Teacher in Charge – Social Communication Difficulties Provision

MPS/UPS + TLR2 (£4,225)

To start September 2011 if possible or January 2012.

Wigmore Primary School is the base for the Local Authority primary mainstream SCD provision, which was opened in September 2009. This is an exciting opportunity for an experienced teacher to play a key role in developing this successful provision which, when full, supports 8 pupils.

We are looking for someone who is enthusiastic and who has the skills and experience of working with pupils who have social communication difficulties. You will need the confidence to support class teachers in integrating these pupils into their planning and their classes. You will also need to have knowledge of the National Curriculum at primary level and some understanding of the Early Years Foundation Stage Curriculum.

It is essential that the SCD provision is an integral part of the school and, as such, the Teacher in Charge needs to be a strong team player with excellent communication skills.

In return, we can offer the support of a friendly and hard-working team who are committed to making a difference, in our highly respected and forward thinking school.

Interested candidates would be very welcome to visit the school.

For an application pack and further details please contact Pat Addison, Wigmore Primary School, Twyford Drive, Luton, Beds LU2 9TB. Tel: (01582) 616101. Email: wigmore.primary.admin@luton.gov.uk Closing date: Monday 27th June at 12.00 noon.
Interviews to be held on Monday 4th July 2011.

Be part of an outstanding, innovative team and help students reach their full potential. The Barnfield Federation is made up of Barnfield College, Barnfield West and South Academies and the worlds first FE sponsored Studio School Enterprise Academy. Barnfield is a Beacon College, graded 'outstanding' by Ofsted, an Investor in People (IIP) Champion and the World Skills Champion for the Eastern region.

The Federation was formed in 2007, when Barnfield broke new ground sponsoring two significantly underperforming secondary schools and creating academies. In under three years, GCSE results have more than tripled and from a position of special measures, they are now judged as 'outstanding' and 'good' by Ofsted. These are the highest results achieved in the history of these schools. To continue this success and further develop and expand the Federation a new Barnfield trust model has been created.

Volunteers play a vital role in helping us achieve that. We have over twice as many volunteers as paid staff.

As a Volunteer Co-ordinator you will be responsible for recruiting, supporting and training volunteers to carry out a wide range of tasks to support staff at St. Johns Hospice.

To be successful in this role you must be a self-starter and able to demonstrate your ability to develop relationships with individuals, both within and outside of the Charity, assisted by your strong influencing and negotiation skills.

Ideally, you will be proficient in the use of Microsoft Office, have good administration skills and the ability to organise and juggle a variety of tasks simultaneously.

For further information and to apply go to our job pages at <https://jobs.suerydercare.org/>

Closing date: 20 June 2011.

Deputy Advertising Sales Manager – Bedford.

Salary £18k-£20k basic. Genuine £22k-£25k OTE plus company car and other benefits.

LSN Media is an innovative and progressive publisher of regional newspapers, websites and magazines across Northants, Beds and Bucks, and is part of the wider Iliffe News & Media business.

We're looking for a Deputy Advertising Sales Manager to work within our busy sales department at the Bedfordshire on Sunday in Central Bedford. The ideal candidate will have regional media advertising sales experience and a proven sales record, and will work very closely with the Commercial Sales Manager to develop and continue to grow advertising sales revenues across our newspapers, websites and magazines in Bedfordshire and beyond.

You will be persuasive, presentable and able to win and retain new advertising accounts in a professional manner through face to face pitches to local clients. Whilst management experience isn't necessary you'll feel confident in helping the department manager to lead, motivate and manage a small sales team on a day to day basis. You'll need to be organised, enthusiastic and hardworking and will enjoy working in a busy, target focussed environment where the customer is genuinely valued.

In return we offer a good benefits package and will give you all of the support and training required to help you develop your skills and move on within our business. The opportunities for further career advancement are excellent.

If you have genuine advertising sales experience and are looking for a new challenge in a stable business please post or email your CV with an accompanying letter that explains why you're suited to this role to;

Samantha Thompson.

THE BOROUGH OF LUTON
NEW SCHEME OF MEMBERS' ALLOWANCES

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the Borough of Luton pursuant to Regulation 4(1) of the Local Authorities (Members' Allowances) (England) Regulations 2003, as amended, has made a scheme of allowances payable to Members and Co-opted Members of the Council.

The scheme took effect from 1 April 2011 and will run until 31 March 2012 but will remain in force after that date if by 1 April 2012 the Council fails to authorise the making of a new scheme.

In making the scheme the Council had regard to the recommendations from an independent remuneration panel in accordance with regulation 19(1) of the Regulations.

The main features of the scheme are as follows:

- (i) A basic allowance for all Members of the Council of £7,500 per annum.
- (ii) Special responsibility allowances for the following posts per annum in addition to the Basic Allowance:

Position	£
• The Executive Leader	Twice the Basic Allowance (£15,000)
• Executive Members with Portfolio Responsibilities, including Deputy Leader	Three quarters the Basic Allowance (£5,625)
• Chairs of the following Committees Overview and Scrutiny Board Development Control Committee	One third of the Basic Allowance (£2,500)
• Chairs of the following Committees: Administration Committee Audit and Governance All Area Committees Regulation Committee Area Committee Board	One Sixth of the Basic Allowance (£1,250)
• Leader of the Major Opposition Group	One third of the Basic Allowance (£2,500)

(iii) Co-optees' Allowance

• Statutory co-opted members (unless Chair of Standards Committee)	One sixth of the Basic Allowance (£1,250)
• Statutory co-opted members (where Chair of Standards Committee)	One third of the Basic Allowance (£2,500)

(iv) The payment of a Dependent Carer's/Childcare Allowance:- Normal Rate – Actual and necessary expenses up to a maximum of £7 per hour and

*Exceptional Rate – Actual and necessary expenses up to a maximum of £20 per hour

* - to be paid only by prior approval of the Head of Local Democracy

(v) That no Member should be entitled to join the Local Government Pension Scheme.

(vi) The continuation of the current practice of re-imbursement travel and subsistence expenses incurred by Members and Co-opted members in connection with their duties based on actual cost. The actual level of mileage allowance will be reviewed on an annual basis in line with the rate paid to Officers of the Council.

A copy of the scheme and copies of the record kept of payments made under the scheme may be viewed at the Council's principal offices at the Town Hall, George Street, Luton between 9.00 a.m. and 5.00 p.m. Monday to Thursday and 9.00 a.m. and 4.30 p.m. on Fridays. A copy of the scheme has also been published on the Council's website (www.luton.gov.uk)

Hatters ousting leaves Owusu bemused

Coogan named Luton's new chief

RUGBY UNION

LUTON Rugby Club have announced a new coaching line-up to lead them into a new division.

Mike Coogan has been made director of rugby with Matt Allen, who led the club to East Midlands Cup success last term, becoming backs coach.

The former European Cup winner with Northampton Saints, who also retired from playing at the end of the season, will also maintain the clubs links with Bedford Blues and Northampton Saints, pathways that have seen Luton players gain contracts at higher level clubs in recent years.

Coogan brings a wealth of coaching experience gained from his time with Dunstablians in their most successful years but more recently his work with both East Midlands and Midlands XVs.

Head of rugby at St Georges School locally in Harpenden, Neil Harris, has become head coach of the first XV. He also contributes at Hertfordshire County and Saracens Development levels.

Bob Barba remains as head coach of the development XV but has also been asked to address forward unit skills across the whole senior club.

Chris Meehan (pictured) will assist Allen with senior backs coaching and will coach the development squad under the guidance of Barba.

Luton chairman Keith Butten said: "It is with great pleasure that we announce Mike Coogan as director of rugby. Mike will have a brief not only to ensure full support for our first XV but also to guide our other coaches to deliver excellence across the senior and colt age ranges."

The Newlands Road outfit have also been transferred from National Midlands Three to London and South East Division Three where they last played in the 2007/08 season.

FOOTBALL

LLOYD Owusu has been left disappointed at not being offered a new Luton Town deal next season because he thought his goal record spoke for itself.

The former Reading, Brentford, Yeovil and Ghana striker was signed by then manager Richard Money in January until the end of the 2010/11 season.

He netted on his debut in a 5-0 win over York and racked up a strike ratio of better than a goal every two games – six in 11 games – until Gary Brabin took as boss and he fell out of favour, making only two further appearances. That led to him getting a phone call last week to say his services would not be required.

"I was a bit disappointed really," Owusu said. "If I wasn't scoring goals I would understand, but I was the only one scoring all the goals and I was taken out of the team."

"In my case, the gaffer called me a few days ago, just to let me know the situation and what he was doing with the club."

"I respected that. It was his opinion and all I can do is look out for what's out there for Lloyd Owusu next."

The 34-year-old forward, who became a fan favourite during his short time at Kenilworth Road, is confident that he will be able to find a new club.

"I've got a couple of people looking out for me – I've got a company called CB Sports [Management] who are doing a lot for me, I've been with them for the last couple of years. They are talking to a few clubs, so hopefully someone will be out there looking for an experienced striker who knows where the back of the net is. If that's the case then hopefully they can come knocking on my door and I'll hopefully sign for someone."

"I've been used to 10-12pm sort of job since '98. I've got a few irons in the fire if football doesn't materialise in the next few weeks or months."

"I honestly believe in my own ability that I will get a club, but failing that I've got some coaching, some consulting stuff and property stuff, so things are going to be in the background for me, so hopefully something will happen."

KNOCK-OUT: Andrew Tate lands a blow

TATE TAKES WORLD TITLE OFF BENIOT

ANDREW 'King Cobra' Tate knocked out Jean-Luc Benoit to win the world ISKA light heavyweight title on home soil last Sunday.

The kickboxer from Luton's Storm Gym clinched the belt in spectacular style at Liquid Nightclub stopping the Frenchman in the eighth round of a scheduled 12.

The fight night saw fellow Storm fighters go toe-to-toe with opponents across the different martial arts of kickboxing, Muay Thai, K1 and mixed martial arts (MMA)

Luton's second champion of the night was Dale Hardiman who captured his first British Mixed Martial Arts Title at 70kg.

After a flurry of punches and kicks the former Royal Marine Commando put a triangle choke on opponent Danny Mack from Northampton to win in just less than two minutes.

But there was disappointment for Storm fighters Emma Goodwin and Nigel Thomas who both lost out in their quests for British titles with close points defeats.

Seamer McGarry set to face former side Suffolk

BY LANCE CHRISTOPHER

sport@LSNmedia.co.uk

WITH hopes of success in the MCCA one-day competition now over, Bedfordshire turn their attention to the Minor Counties Championship and an opening game against Suffolk which starts at Luton, today.

With a whole team of players not available for various reasons, Bedfordshire will be looking to experienced winter signings Steve Stubbings and Andy McGarry to take the lead.

Opening bowler McGarry will be particularly eager to do well having played for Suffolk at one time. He will form a four-man pace attack with Colin Griggs, Martin Weightman and Ziggy Arshad.

Stubbings, the former Derbyshire player, will need to make runs for apart from him and skipper Ollie Clayson, the batting line-up looks short of experience. Bedfordshire's policy of giving youth a chance paid off last season though, and two young university students, Greg Evans and former Bedford Modern School captain Alastair Craig, have been brought in for today's game.

Among the batsmen missing are James Kettleborough, Rob Keogh, Andy Reynoldson, George Thurstance, Ollie Swann and Dan Bendon, all of whom either have examinations or are playing for their universities or first-class county second elevens.

The selected Bedfordshire side is: Ollie Clayson, George Arblaster, Steve Stubbings, Alastair Craig, Greg Evans, Dan Simpson, Martin Weightman, Chris Esh, Ziggy Arshad, Colin Griggs and Andy McGarry.

The match starts at Wardown Park at 11am today and continues tomorrow and Tuesday. ■ Bedfordshire's final group Trophy match against Herefordshire at Eastnor last Sunday was washed out after 13 overs with the home side on 56-1.

Simply Devine

BOXING

MICHAEL 'Chunky' Devine and Mark 'Pee Wee' Adams both picked up points victories last Saturday at York Hall, London, to mark the maiden event of the youngest professional boxing promoter ever – 20-year-old Olivia Goodwin.

Dunstable Adams marked his professional debut by beating Louis Byrne in a four round bout.

The middleweight came with a reputation of being a knock-out artist, having won seven of his ten wins on the unlicensed circuit by stoppage. However, his Guildford opponent was as savvy as they come and managed to stay out of trouble when needed. All four sessions were closely contested with non-stop action and both protagonists taking turns to attack. In the end, referee Jeff Hinds saw the better work coming from Adams and raised his glove at the final bell.

Luton's Devine continued his 100 per cent return to the ring after a year out of the sport with a 40-37 triumph over Dan Carr.

The lightweight simply outclassed his Trowbridge rival, picking his shots and executing them perfectly, even when Carr opted to use bullying tactics.

Frustration boiled over for Carr who, at the end of a third successive round of inferiority, let rip with a shot after the final bell resulting in a talking to from referee Ken Curtis.

Devine turned to his jab in the fourth and final round after Carr went on the attack, but midway through he went toe-to-toe and narrowly missed Carr with a massive overhand right that would have been lights had it connected.

There was little surprise when the scorecard was read out in favour of the 22-year-old from Luton.

HAWES BOWLED OVER BY RECORD

A DUNSTABLE League tenpin bowler has broken the national ladies record by scoring 35 out of 36 strikes including two perfect back-to-back games.

Vicky Hawes, who bowls in Dunstable's Go Bowling Thursday night league, shot her first ever perfect score of 12 strikes for a 300 game but then followed that up with a carbon copy score for consecutive 300s.

The feat, which is as rare as a golfer sinking two successive holes in one, was added to her first game score of 262 – where all but one frame were strikes – to land a series score of 862.

The total has been confirmed by the governing body of bowling, the BTBA, as a national record and is thought to be a European best though this cannot be completely verified due to lack of records across the continent.

Vicky (pictured above) said of her record breaking performance: "I can't believe it. I never expected to bowl so well but I kept throwing strike after strike. To have my first ever 300 then follow it up with another is unbelievable and to break all these records is a little bit over whelming. I kept thinking it's a dream and I'm going to wake up and then realise it didn't happen."

O'Connor deal doesn't spell exit for anyone

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE

james.cunliffe@lutononsunday.com

LUTON Town's attacking players can rest easy as Gary Brabin has insisted that Aaron O'Connor is not a replacement for any of them.

The former Rushden & Diamonds skipper was brought to the club this week on a two-year deal after his Nene Park contract expired.

Within 24 hours, York City boss Gary Mills expressed an interest in striker Jason Walker but the Hatters boss said the former Barrow hitman is going nowhere.

Brabin was quick to point out that his newest acquisition has been introduced simply to add 'a new dimension to his offensive options'.

"Aaron O'Connor has not come in to replace anyone," said Brabin.

On the subject of Walker, the Luton chief added: "Until something official comes in then Jason Walker is still going to be a Luton Town player."

"There are always lots of rumours surrounding every club and sometimes it's a bit cat and mouse."

York boss Gary Mills this week said the striker had a clause in his contract which would allow him to leave Luton for a certain fee but when asked whether that meant he'd be allowed to leave should it be enacted, Brabin said: "At the minute, I've no intention of letting him go but sometimes clubs do things at the time that benefit them."

The Town boss revealed he'll never stop looking for good players to follow O'Connor to Kenilworth Road, but that the task becomes harder to improve on the quality he already has at his disposal.

GOING NOWHERE: Jason Walker

"If a manager says he is not looking to strengthen then he's lying," said Brabin. "I only want really good players to strengthen what we have."

"They have to be good enough but they also must want to play for us."

"I won't be held over a barrel and I won't be rushed into anything."

"When you have a good team it's hard to find players that can fit into it. If I can fill certain areas then I will."

However, he admits that with new deals currently on the table for his out of contract players, his most pressing duty is still to convince the likes of Claude Gnaka, Zdenek Kroca, Ed Asafu-Adjaye, Freddie Murray and Shane Blackett to pen new deals.

"I'm just trying to tie down those players who are out of contract," he said. "As things stand, I've spoken to all of those."

"Some I need to speak to again, some I have verbally agreed terms with and some I still need to hear back from, but at the moment I'm confident with the way things are going."

Keepers Tyler and Pilkington sign on again

LUTON Town have made a double save after goalkeeping duo Mark Tyler and Kevin Pilkington signed new deals to stay at the club for a further 12 months.

Tyler, 34, who has been the first choice stopper since his arrival in 2009, has played 94 times for the Hatters, while former Manchester United keeper Kevin Pilkington, 37, has made 18 appearances since last summer. Manager Gary Brabin, said: "It's fantastic that both Mark and Kevin have agreed to commit their immediate futures with Luton."

"Together they work hard in training and have an excellent relationship. They are always learning new things from one another."

"They have almost 1,000 games between them and I doubt there are many clubs that can boast that experience and know-how. It's great news and a statement of how much this club means to them that they want to stay here."
